Scholarship and Award Recipients

Students in this category are being recognized for scholarships and awards they received from our local Davis community. We are truly impressed by your diligent efforts and proud that you were selected as a recipient because your personal qualities and abilities stood above all others.

We also wholeheartedly thank the donors of each scholarship for their unwavering commitment and support of our students. Without your dedication, kindness and generosity, these scholarship opportunities would not exist.

Thank You!

AARON ARONSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Aaron Aronson, a 1960 graduate of DSHS, gave totally of himself so that the world could be a better place. The student receiving this award must have proven involvement in community service and be planning to pursue course work that will lead to preserving the environment or protecting human rights.

Caroline Johnson

Will attend UC Berkeley

Major: Chemical Engineering

"Receiving the Aaron Aronson Memorial Scholarship is an honor knowing that I can take his legacy and support to continue to aid in developing eco-friendly technology for a cleaner future for all and protecting human rights in the process of protecting our planet."

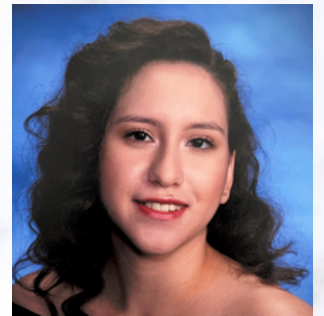

ARMSTRONG FAMILY EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP

Craig Armstrong was a teacher, counselor and vice principal at DSHS and was dedicated to excellence in education and promotion of educational opportunities. His grandson, Todd Armstrong, was a 1997 DSHS graduate and a 2003 graduate of Cal Poly, whose devotion to education helped him persevere through many medical obstacles. Their passion for life and education inspired this scholarship, which is awarded to a senior who plans to enter a career in education or a related field.

Mariana Lopez

Will attend Sacramento State University

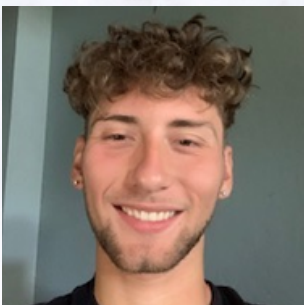

Major: English

"This scholarship means a lot to me because this way I can use the money for educational purposes and fulfill my career goals."

AYUSH SHRESTHA AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY AWARD

Ayush (DHS class of 2021) was loving, caring, kind, and full of fun and laughter. He was a pure-hearted person who loved to make people smile. He put his family and friends first and was always there for them. He believed in living every day of his life to the fullest, which was apparent in his passion for cars and the great pleasure he took in driving his car around. This award recognizes an automotive technology student who shares Ayush's spirit and his passion for cars.

Shayden Heath

Will attend American River College

Major: Science

"It brings me great honor and pride to receive this scholarship in Ayush's name."

BARBARA HUBBARD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Barbara Hubbard was an English teacher, administrative assistant, and a College and Career Specialist at Davis Senior High School's Career Center. During her time in the Career Center, Barbara inspired countless students to attend college, and generously offered her guidance, knowledge and experience to help them reach their full potential. She was instrumental in designing all aspects of Davis Senior High School's Senior Awards Night program, ensuring that students receiving scholarships and awards were honored and celebrated for their achievements. This scholarship is awarded to a student who participated in extracurricular activities, sports, worked part-time, or is planning to enter an education-related field.

Eva Rosa Sedillo

Will attend Cal Poly SLO

Major: Interdisciplinary Studies

"I feel very grateful to share in Barbara Hubbard's legacy of empowering students at DHS to pursue higher education and careers that they're passionate about."

BARBARA NEU MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Barbara Neu influenced the lives of Davis students and families over a 40-year teaching career, including 21 years at Fairfield Elementary School. Barbara found joy and meaning in helping children to realize their fullest potential, not only in the classroom but also in life. This scholarship helps fund the continuing education of eligible former students of Fairfield who are pursuing a trade, vocational education, college or university degree.

Zane Pickus

Will attend UC Davis

Major: Wildlife, Fish and Conservation Biology

"I am both honored and thrilled to have received this scholarship, as I recognize the incredible influence that Mrs. Neu has had on my life."

BEEGHLY-MERRITT MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Mr. Beeghly, a graduate of UC Davis, financed his education almost solely through his own efforts working at a variety of jobs. Scholarships are awarded to high-achieving seniors who plan to attend UC Davis within three years after high school graduation, and had employment in high school that resulting in the saving of a meaningful amount of income.

Jacob Bertrand

"This scholarship gives me the freedom to spend more time pursuing my interests in college."

Mariana Ortega-Nunez

Will attend UC Davis

Major: Toxicology

"Receiving this scholarship means I can continue pursuing my academic interests without worrying about financial issues. Thank you!"

BOB DUNNING JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP

Bob Dunning has been the author of a daily column in the Davis Enterprise for 50-plus years. This scholarship honors Bob's passion for journalism and recognizes his many contributions to the local Davis community. The scholarship is offered to a student who plans to attend a two- or four-year college or university and is considering a career in journalism.

Genevieve Olavarri

Will attend Wesleyan University

Major: Computer Science

"I'm incredibly grateful to my journalism teacher Kelly Wilkerson for helping me discover my passions through the Blue Devil HUB program over the last 3 years, and thankful for Bob Dunning's generosity in gifting me this opportunity as I continue to explore my passions."

BOBBY JONES FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME MEMORIAL

AWARDS

Bobby Jones (1975-1993) played baseball because he loved to play the game. He demonstrated this passion for the game of baseball in the form of silent leadership. Bobby showed the right way to do things by always doing them the right way himself. This scholarship honors the silent leaders among our student athletes, those who play the game simply because they love it and show the team the right way by demonstrating excellence every day themselves.

Aoui Pacheco Delfino

Will attend Sacramento City College

Major: Business

"It is a great honor to receive this scholarship as being an athlete has been a very influential part of my life."

Genevieve Olavarri

"I am grateful to the Davis Odd Fellows for investing in my future and helping make the world a better place to live in by supporting our community."

DAVIS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL PTA SENIOR AWARDS

PTA award is not a college scholarship but an award to recognize student growth during high school. It can be used to help a graduate begin his/her next steps. Students are asked to submit a creative entry to their 9th grade self describing their high school experience, what they learned, and how it will help them navigate Davis Senior High School.

Justin Arizaga
Ramirez

Justin wants everyone to remember that there is time to fix anything. "Do Better" - just because you stumbled doesn't mean you have fallen and cannot get up. I am still young....

Mara Bledsoe

Mara created a flyer that we hope will be posted around campus to help remind students of the many ways to cope and succeed.

Nathan Fanous

Nathan directs students back to basics: prioritize sleep over studying. Commit your weekends to family and leave homework for weekdays. Don't be embarrassed to ask for help, whether you're struggling with a mental, relational, physical or academic conflict.

Morgan Hendrix-Chupa

Morgan reminds us - you are good. And you are enough...I learned that, to get through the storm, sometimes it's okay to not use an umbrella...

Caroline Johnson

Caroline recommends a stable group of friends! I know it seemed so hard and you felt so lonely at times...find people who appreciate who you are.

Jenna Kieffer

Jenna offers a way for students to thrive in the DHS environment - your mindset is the key to your mental health and success.

Isabelle Messner

Isabelle captured a popular sentiment - like we should get a do-over, like we should say "That year wasn't the best, but that's okay! We can just try again!" But we can't. All we can do is keep going.

Ryan Pfeifer

Ryan says Breathe!!!...WHITEBOARD... Organization equals sanity which equals grades that you can be proud of.

Audrey Portello

PTA selected Audrey for recognition because of the creativity and sound advice in her slide presentation which we hope will be shared at Link Crew.

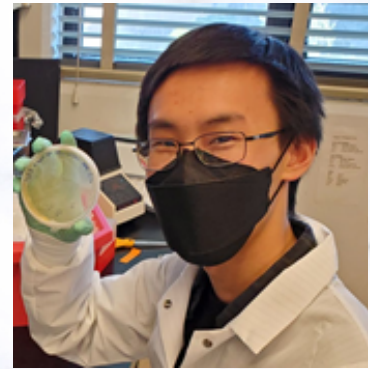

Rachel Prudhomme

Rachel says don't be afraid to make new friends simply because you are scared that people are going to judge you. They're going to judge you anyway. You belong. Your family loves and cares about you more than any other person in this world.

Rachel Wong

Rachel summed up her advice with "You are not kind to others because they are kind to you; you are kind to others because you are a kind person. " Can I get a "whoa, that's good!"

Eddy Zhu

Eddy suggests there are countless opportunities to take, peers to help motivate you to perform at a greater level, and so many people to learn from. Don't ignore them. From my time working with those people and engaging in those opportunities, my passion only grew...look forward and press onward.

DAVIS SUNRISE ROTARY CLUB SCHOLARSHIP

Rotarians connect through a common goal of serving their community, locally and globally. Davis Sunrise Rotary Club is particularly focused on helping youth. This scholarship is offered to a graduating senior who plans to pursue an education at a community college, vocational or technical school.

Guadalupe Mora-Lopez

Will attend Woodland Community College

Major: Administration of Justice

"I am very honored to receive the support of my community. It means a lot to me that you believe in me and my dreams. This money will help me go to college and become a Police Officer."

DAVIS TEACHERS ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

Davis Teachers Association represents K-12 teachers, school nurses, speech therapists, school psychologists, librarians, and counselors in order to bargain on members' behalf and to advocate for our students, who are at the center of everything we do. This scholarship is awarded to a senior on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, ability and plans for a teaching career.

Caroline Johnson
Will attend UC Berkeley
Major: Chemical Engineering

"It is an honor to receive the Davis Teachers Association Scholarship because I'm able to fund my education from not only the scholarship, but all the teachers that have motivated me to strive to be my best self, and there's no greater feeling than that."

DEWEY HALDEN FAMILY TEAM PLAYER AWARDS
